Ongoing Business

- Concessions (Kim)
 - Kim had requested that Mike get a pass to the gym as soon as possible. She wants the food delivered to the gym instead of having to shop for food and bringing it in. Mike indicated that RSD food service may be able to support this, but the Booster would need pricing information and types of products to compare and then make a decision.
 - Lori wants to get more Bomber Boosters members to acquire food handling cards to increase depth of concessions coverage.
 - Lori would like to get at least six parents involved with JV football concession sales.
 - Kent S. volunteered to contact Freshman's moms to get JV football support.
 - Gary Dunford will be contacted regarding getting more Bomber Water ordered.
- Membership Update (Kristine)
 - Lori wants to promote Bomber Boosters. Some ideas would be flyers similar to what we did a few years ago. "Who the Heck are the Bomber Boosters?"
 - Lori will draft up something for the PTSA newsletter and email to General Membership to establish on-going member contacts.
- Bomber On-Line Sales (Kent)
 - Kent reported no online sales again.
 - Kent S. accepted responsibility for taking over the Boosters website and Kent O. will transition duties over time.
- MySchoolDecal.com (Lori)
 - Lori reported that everything's ready to go, but wants to hold off until start of football.

Around the Room

- Kristine would like to invite the RHS new principal, Tim Praino, to a Boosters meeting.
- Lori promoted the Dance Team's Car Wash fundraiser.
- Lori announced that the next Boosters meeting would be on August 31 due to number of events to prepare for in September.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00 PM.
