Guests

- Grant Richardson (Baseball Coach): How can Boosters help him raise money for new uniforms? Wes shared with Grant that the boosters are holding $466 in their account for Baseball. Kim will sent Grant a list of supporter. (grantrichardson@rsd.edu) Grant also hopes to hold a spring break baseball camp.
- Roy Ballard was concern on how his group "Wall of Fame" committee was dismissed. Bonnie apologize but had no address to be able to send out the letter to the group, or who was even in the group. The Bomber Booster Board members thank them for the years of service but feel at this time no committee needed to be formed.

New Business

- Cindy asked the question if another group could raise money by running the ice-cream machine at Varsity basketball games, by training a booster parent who would have a food handlers card. Kim suggested that either Wes or Cindy run the machine because it is touchy and those two are trained to run the ice-cream machine, so it will be up to them who they want to help with selling and serving the ice-cream.
